Notice Concerning Copyright Restrictions:
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies and other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries, museums and archives are authorized to furnish reproductions. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used "for any purpose other than the private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Furthermore, you understand that Deadwood History, Inc. does not claim exclusive ownership of the rights to all the images in our collections. We are simply granting permission to use images in our collections.

I have read and agree to abide by the conditions described above:
